

Saint Stephen

Saint Stephen with a rose

In and out of the garden he goes Country garland in the wind and the rain Wherever he goes the people all complain

Stephen prospered in his time

Well he may and he may decline Did it matter? Does it now?
Stephen would answer if he only knew how

Wishing well with a golden bell

Bucket hanging clear to hell Hell halfway twixt now and then Stephen fill it up and lower down
And lower down again

Lady finger dipped in moonlight

Writing 'what for?' across the morning sky
Sunlight splatters dawn with answers
Darkness shrugs and bids the day

Speeding arrow, sharp and narrow,

What a lot of fleeting matters you have spurned
Several seasons with their

treasons

Wrap the babe in scarlet covers call it your own

Did he doubt or did he try?

Answers aplenty in the bye and bye Talk about your plenty, talk about your ills
One man gathers what another man spills

Jam

Saint Stephen will remain,

All he's lost he shall regain Seashore washed by the suds and the foam,
Been here so long he's got to calling it home

Fortune comes a crawlin,

Calliope woman,
Spinning that curious sense of your own
Can you answer? Yes I can, but what would be the answer to the answer man?

High green chilly winds and

windy
vines in loops around the twining shafts of lavender, they're crawling

to the sun

Wonder who will water all the children of the garden when they sigh about the barren lack of rain and droop so hungry 'neath the sky... I....

Underfoot the ground is patched with climbing arms of ivy wrapped around the manzanita, stark and shiny in the breeze

William Tell has stretched his bow till it won't stretch no furthermore and/or it may require a change that hasn't come before...

Saint Stephen
